JAPANESE CAPTURE DOWAGER EMPRESS.

Allies are Still Fighting Mobs in the Streets of Peking--Chinese to Attack the French.

LONDON, AUGUST 25.—Street fighting breaks out intermittently in Peking, according to dispatches from Shanghai, the allies not having sufficient forces to police the vast city. As small parties of the allied troops penetrate into the new districts they have to engage half-armed mobs.

A Shanghai dispatch repeats the report that Japanese troops pursued the Dowager Empress and the court and overtook them eighty miles southwest of Peking. The Emperor, it is added, threw himself on the protection of his captors. The prisoners have not yet reached Peking.

In the engagement at Tien Tsin, 1,000 Americans, British and Japanese routed 3,000 Chinese and killed 300 of them. The Viceroy of Sze Chuen is reported at Shanghai to be sending troops to the Tonquin frontier and to be intending to fight the French at Meng Tse.

The bulk of the German fleet recently at Shanghai has gone to Taku as an escort to the new German Minister, Dr. Mumm von Schwarzenstein, who is bound for Peking.

Clan fights are of daily occurrence in the Heung-Shan district.

The foreign residents of Shanghai are alarmed at the arrival of the extraordinary number of warships and are fearful of European complications, but they have been assured by some of the naval commanders that the gathering was accidental.

EARL LI GOES TO PEKING.

Will Attempt to Placate Powers.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Chinese officials expressed a belief today that Li Hung Chang, the Chinese peace envoy, had started for Peking or Tien Tsin. While there is said to be no official advice to this effect, yet it is so in accordance with China's course that the official's accept it as a fact. If this proves to be correct, it may bring about early opportunity for personal exchanges between Earl Li and the commanders of the allies and the Ministers of the respective governments.

The Chinese government has been entirely silent since the capture of Peking, except in the two communications from Li Hung Chang and up to the present time, Minister Wu has received no word responsive to the American communication sent him by Mr. Adee last Wednesday. Three days have passed and there has been ample time for Li Hung Chang to formulate his next move. In the circumstances it is felt he accepts American and German answers and such others as may have reached him as negating any present prospect of negotiations along the lines he proposed.

The opinion is expressed that this will prolong the uncertainties of the diplomatic situation, during which Earl Li will seek to meet the requirements laid down by the United States and other powers, while the latter will endeavor to reach some common ground of understanding in the future.

TROOPS POURED INTO TAKU BY THE ALLIES.

(Copyright 1900 by Associated Press.)

TAKU, Aug. 24 (Friday).—Transports are pouring troops into Taku. Three large German vessels have arrived and are unloading. One regiment that has disembarked is on its way to Peking and another is bound for Tien Tsin. Three Russian vessels are also in the harbor. The Fifteenth Infantry, the Third Artillery and 500 marines are camped at Tien Tsin awaiting orders.

Rations for Peking are being forwarded to the fighting contingent by boat. A hundred civilians have left Peking, including the customs force, and are on their way down the river.

The foreigners here desire that a new expedition shall be sent against Pao Ting Fu to destroy the city and avenge the massacres of foreigners which occurred there.

OUR CONSULS TO RETURN TO THEIR POSTS.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The State Department is taking steps to have all of the American Consuls in China return to their several posts as soon as immediate danger from anti-foreign outbreaks is passed. The attention of the Department has been called to those statements emanating from various Consuls to the effect that they left their posts at the direction of the Department. The officials say that is not correct, that the Consuls were merely permitted by the Department to leave their posts if they considered their lives were in danger. Now that the danger is passing the Department is getting ready to have them go back to their posts and take up their routine work.

NO COMMUNICATION BETWEEN RUSSIANS AND THE CHINESE.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—A cablegram has been received from Admiral Remey in which he states it is reported that the Russian commander at Peking has forbidden any communication between his forces and the Chinese.

MISSIONARIES IN THREATENED CITY OF AMOY.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A letter was received today at the Board of Foreign Missions of the Reformed Church in America from A. A. Adee, Assistant Secretary of State, asking for information regarding the Reformed Church missions in China. The headquarters of the mission is at Amoy, and all the missionaries from outlying stations were called there some time ago. The Rev. Dr. Henry N. Cobb, corresponding secretary, sent Mr. Adee a list of the missionaries now there and the location and estimated value of the buildings owned by the mission.

There are supposed to be thirteen of the adult missionaries now in Amoy. The mission property is valued at about $100,000.

ALLIES CAMPED OUTSIDE OF THE IMPERIAL PALACE.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

PARIS, Aug. 25.—General Frey, commanding the French force at Peking, telegraphs this under date of August 20th:

"The allies have driven the Boers from all the points they occupied. The allies are camped outside the imperial palace, which was occupied by some 20,000 of the regular Chinese army. The generals decided to march the international forces through the palace door, which was afterward closed."

ROBERTS' NEW HEADQUARTERS.

He Leaves Pretoria to Attack the Boer Stronghold.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—Lord Roberts has left Pretoria and has established his headquarters at Wonderfontein, the second station west of Mafeking, where the bulk of the Boers are supposed to be.

Lord Roberts also wired that General Pole-Carew occupied Belfast near Mafeking, August 24th, without opposition.

OUR OARSMEN VICTORIOUS.

They Defeat the French Crew By Fifteen Lengths.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

PARIS, Aug. 25.—The eight-oared crew of the Vesper Boat Club of Philadelphia won their trial heat today by fifteen lengths, defeating a crew of the Nautical Club of France. The distance was one mile and 153 yards. The Vesper's time was 5 minutes, 15.2 seconds. The final heat will be rowed tomorrow.

The contest occurred near Asperis. The Vesper eight was the only American crew competing. The four-oared competition followed so closely on the eight-oared that Trainer Dempsey decided not to compete in the former. A stiff wind blew across the river, preventing fast time.

The first heat was won by the Holland Club in 4 minutes, 59.1 seconds.

The Vesper quickly caught the water in the second heat and soon had a commanding lead. At half the distance the Frenchmen had enough and the Vesper slowed up, finishing easily.

BALLEYPHOO BEY WINS THE FUTURITY.

Whitney's Nag Takes Rich Prize.

Olympian Runs Second and Tommy Atkins Third.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The Futurity was won by Balleyphoo Bey by a length, Olympian second, Tommy Atkins third. Time, 1:10.

At 4:30 o'clock the horses were called to the post for the Futurity. Elkhorn had the rail position, then came Blues, Balleyphoo Bey, Tower of Candles, Cap and Bells, Lady of the Valley and Olympian with Tommy Atkins on the outside.

The following were scratched: Six Shooter, Longshoreman, Smile, and Kenilworth. Tower of Candles, 119 pounds, was added.

The classic Futurity was run today at Sheepshead Bay probably before a record-breaking crowd, but over a track about as bad as it could be—deep, muddy. The horses engaged for the Futurity were as fit as hands could make them to contend for the stake, which will net nearly $40,000 to the fortunate winner. A full list of the starters is as follows:

Tommy Atkins, weight 129; owners, J. R. and P. P. Keene; jockey, Spencer.

Blues, 126; C. Fleischmann's Sons; Maher.

Tower of Candles, 119; J. R. and P. P. Keene; O'Connor.

Sweet Lavender, 119; C. Littlefield; Littlefield.

Lady of the Valley, 116; R. T. Wilson Jr.; McCue.

Balleyphoo Bey, 112; W. C. Whitney; Slocum.

Belvino, 112; J. Galtway.

Olympian, 112; J. R. and P. P. Keene; Henry.

Early this morning all the candidates were sent out for their final exercise through the stretch, and after a canter around the track a couple of times were sent the regulation quarter at top speed, although the track did not permit of fast time. Every one of the high-bred youngsters showed beautiful form. The trainers then escorted their charges back to the stables and made their way to the shaded grand stand to wait for the time to come for the brief race, which was to make the winner's owner $40,000 richer for the work of a minute and a quarter by a highly-bred racer.

In the discussion over the chances of the various candidates there seemed to be a general idea that the Keenes string, headed by Olympian, and Balleyphoo Bey, the candidate of the Whitney stable, should be well up in front. The uncertain youngster, Blues, was fancied by not a few. His races, however, have been most uneven, and few would hazard the opinion that he had a good chance to win.

The two fillies, Sweet Lavender and Lady of the Valley, had some support.

PRIMARY ELECTIONS ARE IN FULL BLAST.

There Is Much Interest Taken in Fights Among Republicans in the Several Districts.

THE TRIBUNE tonight will receive full returns of the result of the primary election from the city and county, and bulletins of these returns will be posted as fast as they are received in front of the TRIBUNE office.

Arrangements have been made to cover the entire county of Alameda, and to get the fullest possible returns. Those who watch THE TRIBUNE'S bulletins, therefore, will know, before they go to bed tonight, the names of the delegates who will compose the Republican County Convention, and the result of the several fights that have been going on in the several districts. The general public is invited to visit this office and get returns.

Both the Republican and Democratic primaries are in full blast this afternoon. There are practically no contests in the Democratic ranks, therefore there is no great display of interest. As the voting is from club rolls, a large vote will not be cast. The Democrats will elect delegates to the State Convention, and also delegates to a County Convention which will nominate a Senator, Assemblyman, Supervisors and Judges. There appear to be few aspirants for office, save in the Fifth Supervisorial District, where ex-Sheriff C. D. White and T. C. Landrege are both seeking the nomination.

On the other hand, there is a hot fight in the Republican ranks for every place on the ticket. In balloting, the great register is used, just as it was in the Congressional primary. There is no contest for delegates to the State and judicial conventions, but for Senator and Supervisors there is a rather warm though good humored struggle.

The chief interest centers in the Senatorial district, composed of the Fifth and Fifty-first Assembly districts. A three-cornered fight is being waged there between G. R. Lukens, C. L. Dodge and W. H. Waste, the two former of Oakland and the latter of Berkeley. The fight is centered in the Fifty-first District, which includes the Seventh Ward and East Berkeley. That district has enough delegates to nominate, and as they are all elected on a club ticket the fight is for the delegates from there.

In the Fifty-first, Lukens is running a full set of delegates, but on the Dodge and Waste tickets the names of twenty-eight of the twenty-nine delegates are the same. They are battling with each other for the twenty-ninth delegate. By agreement the man who polls the most votes for the twenty-ninth delegate will get the whole delegation. All three have been strong partisans and active workers, and the contest is being waged to a finish. All three have literally strewed the district with addresses to the voters. No stone is left unturned in the haste to get votes, but there are no signs of disorder.

In the Fourth Supervisorial District Councilman H. D. Rowe is putting up a stiff fight against Charles Roeth, who is a candidate to succeed himself. This is also a finish and is being waged with great earnestness but without bitterness. Both sides are active, but Roeth's friends say victory is certain for their man.

In the Fifth Supervisorial District the contestants are John Mitchell, the incumbent, and Dr. Fred E. Pierce. By mutual agreement the contest has been narrowed down to the Second Ward. It is the home ward of both men and both are popular, consequently the struggle is a peculiarly interesting one. Supporters indicate that a very full vote will be polled in the ward. Both men are confident of winning.

Out in the Livermore district, now represented in the Board by Thomas D. Wells, there is little doing. The place is conceded to Mr. Wells by the Democrats, and the Republican candidates are not making a vigorous contest.

Things are quiet, also, at the Alameda voting places.

The statement in a morning paper that the name of W. R. Emery had been used on the Dodge ticket without that gentleman's authority is emphatically denied by Mr. Emery. The use of the name was authorized.

At the polling place of precinct 9 of the Fourth Supervisorial District, Fourteenth and Market streets, there is some activity, although the contest is not unusually spirited.

Dodge, Waste, Lukens, Roeth and Rowe each have their workers and every fellow is looking out for himself. The Waste and Dodge tickets contain the same list of delegations with the exception that the Waste ticket has the name of Dr. Thomas W. Hall in substitution for that of R. B. Gaylord, a Dodge delegate.

William Mathews is looking after Lukens' interests at this polling place. Charles Roeth, N. Sheeline and A. F. Bush are engineering Roeth's fight. Mr. Storey is dealing out the Rowe tickets. Jackie Baumgarten is buttonholing the voters for Waste.

Less than forty votes had been cast up to 2 o'clock.

There is no contest on in precinct No. 1 of the Forty-eighth Assembly District. The polling place is at 862 Market street. The district is interested only in the two Superior Judgeships and the delegates to the Republican State Convention. There is no opposition to the regular set of delegates, and but one ticket is in the field.

Little interest is being taken here in the primaries. Up to 2 o'clock this afternoon less than a dozen votes had been cast.

Through an agreement between Supervisorial candidates Mitchell and Pierce there is no contest at the primaries in the First Ward. The polling places at 1689 Seventh street and 1453 Seventh street are practically deserted, little interest being taken in the election, and it is not thought that more than twenty-five ballots will be cast.

The district is entitled to thirty-four delegates. The Supervisorial candidates agreed that each should name twelve and that ten should be absolute.

DOINGS IN THE COLLEGE TOWN.

Mrs. Hearst to Make the University a Rich Gift.

BERKELEY, Aug. 25.—Mrs. Hearst has made another gift to the University. She has purchased two parcels of the twenty acres known as the Hillside tract, to the south of the University campus. The deeds were recorded yesterday. She has bought the property as a part of her gift of Hearst Hall to the University. The building will be made to that place as its permanent site, and when it is established and its fittings are all in place Mrs. Hearst will present the land and hall to the University. The gift will be worth in the neighborhood of $20,000. Mrs. Hearst will not, however, purchase the remaining property included in the twenty acres of the tract. That will be bought by the University on its own responsibility.

Death of Mrs. Canavan.
BERKELEY, Aug. 25.—Mrs. Belle Canavan died Thursday at her home, 258 Alameda street. She was the widow of the late P. H. Canavan and a sister of Mrs. John G. Canavan. She leaves a daughter, Julia White Canavan. Mrs. Canavan was 59 years of age and a native of Talladega, Alabama. She had lived in Berkeley for twenty-two years.

The funeral services were held at the family residence this morning. Interment was in Mountain View Cemetery.

CHINESE MAY RISE UP IN A BODY.

In Wendell Hall, last night, Ho Yow, Consul-General for China in San Francisco, spoke on the trouble in China. Among other things he said: "China must trade with you—she must have trade; she must one day be one of the commercial nations. She must keep up with the times. She must get on enough to feed her 500,000,000 of people. Recent advances inform me that the United States will be sending troops to China. I hope it will not be so. There will be great danger in such a course.

"I fear when it is known that the Chinese capital is in the hands of foreigners there will be a terrible uprising all over China. The Chinese will rise in a body and it will take much money and many lives to quell them. I am sure that the United States will not do this. There are vast territories to be gained. The Chinese will play all sorts of games in their garb. It will cost the United States $1,000 a year to keep one soldier in China.

"Ten thousand dollars a year won't garison one province. The amount of money necessary will be enormous and the sacrifice of life great."

Need of King's Daughters.
The King's Daughters' Home for Incapacitated at 1020 Oak Street is greatly in need of woolen and cotton rags for the patients. Especially are these needed for the bed-ridden patients. The Home will be glad to send for a large lot of those who have them will notify the matron. The telephone number of the Home is Five 554.

Pears'
Its least virtue is that it lasts so.
Soap is for comfort; the clean are comfortable.
Pears' soap cleanliness—is perfect cleanliness.
All sorts of people use, all sorts of stores sell, especially druggists.

IRRIGATION AT MT. EDEN.

Rancher's Experiment Proves Highly Successful.

MT. EDEN, Aug. 25.—A. W. Schafer is proving this year by his experience last year with his crops on account of the dry season. He now has as good an irrigating plant as there is in the valley. The water comes from a well lately dug on his ranch, and this year has proven there is a never-failing supply of water there. The well is between forty and fifty feet deep. He used water from this well for all his fruit, and at present is irrigating his tomato land and those vines are showing good results from this experiment. On account of climatic changes it is becoming necessary in many localities in this State to irrigate where in years past such a thing was never thought of.

"The season is now on for fresh tomatoes. The first one reported this season was by Henry Dickman. He has this tomato on exhibition at the depot. In appearance it represents a cluster of tomatoes. One tomato weighed at least five pounds.

"There will be quite a change among the ranchers in this neighborhood on the 1st of October. The Edens move to the M. J. Mohr ranch. Otto Schwabe goes to the Clawitt ranch, which the Edens have. Pete Jorgensen moves to the Charles Gading ranch. Henry Gansberger goes on the old Peterman ranch. Andrew Anderson will go to the Edens. Eddie Clawitt returned on Tuesday from a week's camping with a party of San Franciscans. The work was very hard in the hills back of Mt. Hamilton. Eddie reports that during the week they subsisted on game, of which there is an abundance in that part of the country.

"The illness of Henry Oliver has developed into a case of appendicitis. He will be taken to the hospital and the operation will be performed. His many friends are hopeful for the success of this operation and his speedy recovery.

was last year, and in consequence the hop growers have announced that there will be only about twenty days' work for the pickers. The falling of the crop is ascribed to late frosts. ## TOTAL PARALYSIS RESULTS FROM A FALL.

Mrs. W. H. Jackson, who resides at 37 Ninth street, met with a serious accident today which may be attended with serious results. She was suddenly stricken with paralysis from the shoulders downward. The result of a fall of a distance of about ten feet. The accident happened while Mrs. Jackson was playing with the child of a neighbor. She lost her balance and fell heavily on a veranda, striking heavily on her head. The accident is deeply deplored by all the friends of both Mrs. Jackson and her husband.

Town Talk.

The principal source of interest in this week's Town Talk is undoubtedly the Sanjourer paragraph on the Williams ill-fated case. The news is new and exclusive and is deeply interesting. There is even more entertainment in Town Talk this week than usual. An amusing little function in honor of an Oakland girl is commented upon, and the latest Los Angeles, Santa Monica and New York gossip is cleverly woven into the fabric of the society girl who conceals her identity under a nom de plume, is flanked by two satirical sketches and some sparkling verse. The editorials on matters of interest and their status in Society, and in business, will give much food for thought.

SATURDAY.....AUGUST 25, 1900.

The Democratic campaign thus far seems to be made up of equal parts of hot air and cold feet.

Bryan insists that silver is not a dead issue. Not only live, but this campaign to beat him just as it did four years ago.

The statement that 38 men were killed in duels in Italy last year indicates that duelling in France is much slier as well as much funnier.

The heat was so intense during the ceremonies attending the nomination of Bryan at the Populist convention that all speeches were cut short except the one delivered by the nominee. He went on to the bitter end. Nothing short of a sun-stroke could shut off his wind.

A twenty-five mile relay race in which each participant is to have ten horses changing from one to the other whenever he sees fit, is to be one of the features of the approaching meeting at Tambo. Those in search of novelty should certainly witness this event, for it will not change enough to suit everybody.

Bryan's speech accepting the Populist nomination was a plausible special plea to set aside the financial issue and substitute the question of expansion. Never before did a candidate for the Presidency make such a pitiful attempt to evade an issue that he himself forced. While Bryan accepted the nomination he begged off from the issues the Populists desire to raise. Mental acrobat that he is, he cannot stretch his elastic principles so as to cover the variegated, non-cript and contradictory "issues" set up by the various organizations that have made him their joint nominee. He is embarrassed by too many nominations and too many issues. Bryan wants to keep all the nominations but he tearfully requests the privilege of picking his issues. He is unable to grasp the fact that issues are created by conditions and cannot be taken or left as one would cherries in a pie. But he is pretty shifty dodger for all that.

THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC'S NEW TERMINUS.

The telegraphed story that the Southern Pacific would abandon the construction of terminal facilities at Galveston, Texas, bears all the earmarks of a New Orleans invention. The wish was probably father to the thought. The phrase "Huntington's folly" is sufficient to give it the stamp of untruth. Mr. Huntington made no grave mistakes in railway construction. It was his custom to look the ground over very carefully before proceeding with any enterprise of magnitude. He had been considering the plan of constructing terminal facilities at Galveston for several years before he decided upon it. The question was one of expediency and not feasibility.

As a tidewater terminus Galveston distinctly is the advantage over New Orleans, but the Southern Pacific already had ample terminal facilities at New Orleans representing a heavy investment. Besides, making Galveston the ocean terminal would cut over 200 miles of the main line off the transcontinental haul, thus depriving it of earning power. An additional investment of two or three millions would be required for the construction of wharves, docks, warehouses, yards, etc., at the new point.

On the other hand, there were several pronounced advantages in favor of the project. It materially shortened the overland haul and strengthened the Southern Pacific in its fight for through traffic. It furnished the shortest route from sea to sea in the United States. As a deep water port Galveston is much better located than New Orleans. Since the completion of the Government jetty there is from twenty-eight to thirty feet of water on the bar at the lowest stages. In the harbor is safe anchorage for an immense amount of shipping. Fronting directly upon the sea, expensive towing is obviated. The city is built on a dry sand island, surrounded by salt water, and its climate is cooler and more salubrious in summer than that of New Orleans, nor is the city so subject to visitations of the yellow fever which paralyzes trade and blocks railway traffic.

In nearly thirty years Galveston has not had a serious epidemic of yellow fever, while New Orleans has been repeatedly visited by the dread scourge during that period.

The entrance to the Mississippi does not always afford deep water at all stages, and New Orleans is situated 120 miles inland, which consumes time and expense in towing. The city is surrounded by malarial swamps which render the climate unhealthy in summer, while its liability to yellow fever gives an uncertainty to railway operation that is embarrassing and entails loss. Much traffic that would ordinarily go over the Southern route is diverted during certain seasons to other lines because of the fear of goods being caught in quarantine.

The Southern Pacific has already expended much money in getting an independent line into Galveston, and the purchase of water front lands for terminal facilities, and it is highly improbable that the project will be abandoned now. Indeed, the construction of the transcontinental line through Texas and Mexico to Mazatlan, now proceeding, seems to make it more necessary than ever.

LINED UP FOR PROGRESS.

Governor Gage, who has just returned from a trip East, has added his voice and opinion to those who, after having had an opportunity to judge public sentiment beyond the Rockies an opportunity to judge public sentiment beyond the Rockies. One point that impressed the Governor was the lack of genuine enthusiasm for Bryan, and as he was in Chicago when the Nebraskan arrived there he had a good basis upon which to form his opinion.

It is only natural that this condition of affairs should exist. The American public is discriminating and is perfectly competent to judge the situation, stripped of the political trimmings and adornments of both parties. The Democratic campaign this year is being made upon so palpably false a basis that it cannot be expected to arouse enthusiasm in the hearts of a people who have such mighty interests to entrust to those placed in charge of their affairs. No matter how much Bryan may prate about imperialism or trusts, or how little he may say about free silver, every one knows that the underlying principle of this political life is to revolutionize the money question in a way the people declared at the polls four years ago must not be done. He is simply masquerading when he pretends to be so enraptured in the imperialistic issue as to make it his main and guiding fight, for certain it is that if he were placed in power in the White House he would seek every opportunity to ride his free silver hobby horse, and in the alarm he would occasion to financial interests lest perchance he might succeed in establishing his silver heresy, he would shake the present commercial stability of the Nation to its foundation.

Where Bryanism is mainly doomed is when the people ask themselves the question of why they should seek a change of administration. When a man's business is running in first-class shape and bringing in greater returns than ever before, while at the same time a permanent and fast-developing trade is being built up, he would be considered insane if he should suddenly decide to adopt methods exactly opposite to those he had been pursuing, especially if it were apparent that by so doing he would run a big risk of losing the trade of his principal customers. So it is with politics. During the past four years the country has been brought into a higher grade of development than ever before in its history; never has there been so much money in the treasury vaults; the factories are running in full blast; the demand for labor more than keeps pace with the supply, and wages are higher than for a quarter of a century; vast improvements, local, State and National, are in progress; our exports are greater than the country ever before recorded, and our foreign trade is increasing at a phenomenal rate—in fact, the United States is in a better and more progressive condition today than the past has ever shown. Why, then, should the people want a change? On the contrary, they should be seeking every possible means to perpetuate the present conditions, and that they are fully alive to the situation will be indubitably proved on election day.

OUR STAND IN CHINA.

The orders from Washington that no more troops are to be sent to China is further and convincing evidence of the policy of the Administration in the Far East. A skeptical smile went the rounds in Democratic and anti-expansion circles when, at the outset of our operations in China, it was announced from Washington that any attempt to draw America into the proposed partition of the Mongolian Empire would be rejected, and pointed references were made to similar allegations on our part at the time the war with Spain started up.

The conditions of the present campaign, though, are vastly different to the former one. When the Spanish war commenced there was no desire on the part of the Administration to acquire outside territory, but as it developed it became necessary to seize and hold certain points of vantage for the operation of our forces. Nothing of this nature is required, however, in our treatment of the Chinese question. Our sole object in sending troops there was to protect our representatives and the missionaries, and with that accomplished our work is well nigh done. All that remains is to make certain that there will not be a recurrence of the recent evils and to insist upon the fullest commercial rights being accorded to us in the event of the seizure by the powers of ports or trading territory.

In the issuance of the latest orders regarding the troops the Administration has, therefore, acted both wisely and in accordance with the attitude it originally assumed, for such action is a plain notification both to the powers and our own people that the United States cannot be drawn into any entanglements in the Far East.

MOB VIOLENCE AGAINST NEGROES.

Within the last six weeks there have been remarkable displays of mob violence against negroes in Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama, New York, Ohio and Indiana. These outbreaks were widely separated and wholly unrelated. Not one of them can be remotely traced to politics. In each case the chieftain was the direct result of a crime committed by a negro. In each there was a white mob and a negro criminal or criminals. It is the fashion to ascribe all such displays to race prejudice, but is this a complete explanation? The American people are not changed in character, nor are they less law abiding than they were formerly. There is no evidence anywhere that white prejudice against men of another color is growing. On the other hand, there are many evidences that prejudice against men of color is decreasing. What, then, is really the matter? All good citizens condemn lynching and deplore such mad outbreaks as we have recently witnessed. While condemning them, however, it is well to study the underlying causes. There is something at work deeper than the mere fact that the negro is black and the white man is not. This lynching and burning by mobs must be put an end to, but the disease can best be treated when the causes which produce it are thoroughly understood. We have a problem here that requires wise study and heroic surgery. When prejudice against color has perceptibly weakened why should the white public be less kindly disposed toward negroes than formerly? The answer to this question lies at the bottom of the recent disturbances. When it is satisfactorily arrived at the grave problem it presents can be treated intelligently.

China will have a big bill to settle with Uncle Sam as a result of the present troubles. If we don't have any more success in collecting it, though, than we have had with that Turkish claim of ours, we won't have to stay up nights figuring out how we can spend the money.

Among the many surprising developments of the census, Omaha shows a falling off of 37,000. This should not be so surprising, though, when it is remembered that the last census was taken before Bryan became the boy orator of Nebraska.

Clarence Berry, who made a fortune on the Klondike, is going to put his money into a dairy in the San Joaquin. He evidently has an idea that he can pan out milk with as great success as he did Yukon gold.

An up-country farmhand lost his life yesterday by being run over by the cultivator he was driving. What an opportunity for yellow journalism to work in some harrowing details.

Early grapes are ready for marketing, but labor is scarcer than ever. The man with the pick is more in demand nowadays than the man with the hoe.

ESPIONAGE STARS IN STERLING PLAYS

"Two Orphans" at Dewey and "Forty-Nine" at the Macdonough.

At the Dewey Theater, next week, the romantic play of "The Two Orphans" will be produced on a scale of splendor which has never been excelled in that theater. The large stock company of the Dewey will be increased and strengthened and the setting will include some of the finest kind of scenic work which has ever been seen on that stage. The garden scene will be especially beautiful. It will have however more than the charm of the artist's work because it will be peopled with personages and vivified with acts and blunders which are witnessed only when the piece is produced in a manner in keeping with the ideas of the author. There will be a bewildering array of richly-dressed women, the pouring of champagne, cooing and the entrancing music which, in such cases, is used to enthrall the senses. The same completeness of detail will characterize every other scene.

The story of the "Two Orphans" has been told many and many a time by the best actors the country has ever known. It has caused tears to flow from as many female eyes as has any other dramatic masterpiece, "East Lynne."

The Chevalier will be played by De Witt Clinton. Miss Fanny Gillette will appear as Hecarlie. Miss Gillette does admirably in every character in which she is called upon to play, and her performance in the role of Hecarlie was so perfect that she became famous in the role, which she played for some years, to the Louisie of Louis, by Edine Gillette. The character of the blind girl, the part of Pierre, the tender-hearted cripple will be assumed by Lander Stevens. The role is one of the most difficult of the stage, and will reveal and bring down thunders of applause. The part of Jacques will be played by Jefferson J. Williams and that of Louise by Edine Gillette. The play will run throughout the week.

THE MACDONOUGH. At the Macdonough Theater next week Joseph Miller's drama "49" is to be produced by the Oakland Stock Company, with Miss Maud Miller, the daughter of Joseph Miller as leading lady.

The play was written by Joseph Miller, while his daughter was studying at the Abbey of Loretta in Canada. Joseph Miller was then in the Slavia region, and the play tells the story of his life during the time of the Russian Revolution. The play is a masterpiece of the stage, and the story is one of the most interesting of the time. The play is a masterpiece of the stage, and the story is one of the most interesting of the time.

The production of "49" will be a success. The play is a masterpiece of the stage, and the story is one of the most interesting of the time. The play is a masterpiece of the stage, and the story is one of the most interesting of the time.

who is known on the stage as Grace Hull. A few years ago she was known as one of the most beautiful and most brilliant young actors of this city. Like many other young women of Oakland, she embraced the actor's profession, but unlike a number of them she did not desert to China, and she is now more than ever crowded and where only the talented and fittest survive. She has developed womanly ability and character, and she has a qualification which caused her re-employment by Broadhurst to impermanently characterize the Swallow Girl in "What's New at the Palace?" Her success in the role, however, because of new touches of human nature which she gave to it, attracted the attention of other managers, from whom liberal offers were received, as an inducement to enroll under their banners. Miss Hull finally withdrew from Broadhurst's plan, to accept the offer of Henry Clay Daymer, the well known actor-manager. ## IT WILL MAKE LIFE EASY

For you if you have one of those world-beaters of steel ranges. The "Royal" range. One that is not only beautiful, but their baking power are unequalled, in fact they surpass in all details, any range now on the market. This renowned range comes in various sizes and they are up-to-date in every regard—that means it makes cooking a pleasure. It gives you the best of all qualities they possess over other ranges. You will have to come in and let us explain and show them to you; that will convince you of its merits. E. W. Rutt, 512 and 513 Thirteenth street, near Wash.

Public Gardens of Tien Tsin

The war in China has been a great educator so far as a knowledge of Chinese cities is concerned. Before the Boxers attacked the Tien Tsin foreign settlement a couple of months ago hardly one American in a thousand knew that Tien Tsin was the largest and most important city

In Northern China, from a commercial point of view, that it has a population of over a million and possesses the finest buildings and public gardens to be found in China. These things are true, however.

The picture gives a general view of the city, showing the beautiful public gardens in the foreground. The gardens are carefully laid out and carefully kept up. There are many blocks of handsome buildings in Tien Tsin, and altogether the city is a great surprise to travelers who have formed their impressions of Chinese cities from a visit to Canton or Hongkong.

SOUTH Gate at Tien TSIN

The city of Tin Tien Tsin is surrounded, the latter were repulsed with heavy loss like Peking, by a large wall, and the illustration shows the south gate. It was from behind this wall that the Chinese poured such a deadly fire into the ranks of the allies on that terrible day when the Chinese in panic from their defenses.

The Mongolians have always had great faith in the efficacy of their walls as a means of defense against invaders, but that faith has doubtless been badly warped by their experiences at Tien Tsin and Peking, in the latter city the allies having blown up the walls with dynamite.

Ladies of the Peking Legations

The ladies of the Peking legations who have just been rescued by the allies must have suffered agonies of horror in the terrible weeks when it seemed as if no help could reach them in time to avert themselves bravely through the terrible ordeal which they have passed. The story of the siege of the legations from a woman's point of view will be one of the most interesting ever told. In the illustration besides Minister Conger's wife are the wives of the other Ministers.

SPECIMENS OF CHINA'S IMPERIAL TROOPS

The imperial troops of China make a brave showing so far as their appearance goes, and it must be admitted that those of them who have been drilled by foreigners did some hard fighting at Tien Tsin and caused the rest of the world to seriously revise its opinion of the military prowess of the Chinese. The crack regiment of the imperial army is called "The Tigers." They are striped like the monarch of the Indian jungle, and look fully as ferocious with their hideously painted faces and fantastic headgear. They rely on their appearance to scare all the fight out of the enemy. The illustration shows a choice body of the Chinese army guard-arch of the Indian jungle, and look fully ing the American Legion.

Miss Gould's Industrious Secretary

Miss Helen Gould has discharged her private secretary, says the New York Telegraph. The young woman who was hired to attend to Miss Gould's correspondence seemed to think that her one mission was to exploit Miss Gould, to act as her press agent, in fact, when it is generally known that the one thing Miss Gould least desires is publicity and notoriety. Miss Gould's private secretary had at one time been a newspaper woman, and she never got over her instincts to get a good story into print. She knew that Miss Gould was good "copy," and that distinguished member of New York society could not go visiting a friend or donate a million to some college without having her private secretary send a long account of it to some of her former newspaper chiefs. Miss Gould's patience was taxed to the utmost when she saw recently a carefully tabulated statement of the requests made of her for alms. The 1,303 begging-letters had been carefully classified, and quite an interesting story about them was prepared for publication. She lost no time in letting her private secretary know that the sooner she got back in the newspaper business the better it would be for her.

This Country Grows the Most Mint.

It is not a generally known fact that the United States furnishes two-thirds of the peppermint of the world, yet such is the case. The greater portion of the mint marketed is grown in New York and Michigan. It is claimed that mint was used by the ancients in the form of a tea, both for medicinal purposes and as a stimulant, and that it is the liquor spoken of in the New Testament.

Machine Gun in Legation Compound

It is probable that when the story of the heroic defense of the Peking legations against the hordes of Boxers and Chinese troops is told in detail it will be found that the machine gun in the above picture was a most potent factor in keeping out the enemy. The Boxers are fanatics, but far braver ones than they have been demoralized and cut to pieces by the murderous fire of these light and mobile field pieces. Kitchener used them with terrible effect against the savage and fearless Devildogs of the Sudan, and they played an important part in the stubborn Boer defense which beat back the picked British troops for months on the Tugela.

RAILWAY VIADUCT DESTROYED BY BOXERS

The Boxers have a bitter hatred of every foreign invention introduced into China, and particularly of the railroads. In building the few railways in China great offense was given by the fact that the iron horse runs so close to the graves that seem to be the principal feature of the Chinese landscape that the roar and rumble of the trains are believed by the Chinese to disturb the repose of their ancestors. As about the only religion the average Chinaman knows is ancestor worship, the feeling with which he regards the "steam devil" can be imagined. The illustration shows a viaduct destroyed by the Boxers on the railway from Peking to Hankow.
